

IMPACT: Chicago

@ University of Chicago, Chicago, IL

July 6 – 17, 2014 // $2,425

At IMPACT: Chicago, teens will have fun giving back through meaningful community service and learn how to fundraise by connecting with and learning from mentors who are leaders in their fields. They'll explore Chicago and all of the sites that make the Windy City famous. Throughout their two weeks, they'll learn important skills they can bring home to their local BBYO Stand UP campaign that will make a lasting change and lead to a lifetime of tikkun olam, repairing the world.

What You Can Expect from BBYO's On Campus Experiences:

- + BBYO professionals, who work with teens on the chapter, regional and International level year round, and/or the host/partner university staff supervise and support all BBYO on Campus programs.
- + Programs are designed to provide participants with a well-rounded experience while still having a unique focus inspired by the campus or host city such as advocacy (DC); entrepreneurship (Michigan); philanthropy (Chicago); and service (Boston).
- + Participants go off-campus during service and community outreach programs, organized fun and social activities or as small groups for staff-supervised free time.
- + Teens will receive approximately 35-45 community service hours for their participation at the IMPACT programs in Boston, Chicago and DC.
- + Transportation is provided from the designated airport to the program location.

What are they doing?

- + Visiting exciting attractions like Navy Pier and Millennium Park.
- + Planning and leading hands-on projects that will make a difference in Chicago.
- + Making the University of Chicago their home and the city of Chicago their classroom.

What are they gaining?

New friends who are their partners in planning, programming and play and who become a supportive network as they take their leadership skills home to continue the difference they made in Chicago.
