

Caltrain & BART Transportation

First transportation option from Caltrain station to Hotel Zephyr:

The SF Caltrain stop is on 4th Street and King Street. From there, walk up to 5th and Townsend Streets and take the Muni Bus, route 47. This bus will say Fisherman's Wharf and the last stop is Beach and Powell Streets, which is just ½ block away from the hotel. You will need to have the exact change since the driver's don't carry money. The bus fare is currently $2.75 per person.

Second transportation option from Caltrain to Hotel Zephyr:

A taxi from the Caltrain station to the hotel, approximate fare: $25.

Take BART from San Francisco International Airport to the Embarcadero BART station. Please expect the charge to be about $10 per person. From San Francisco International Airport take any train that is heading towards the East Bay, which routes through all of San Francisco. The trains will read Pittsburg/Bay Point, Dublin/Pleasanton, Richmond and Warm Springs/South Fremont. Any of these trains will stop at all San Francisco locations first.

After you get off at the Embarcadero BART station, take a taxi or a trolley. A taxi ride from the Embarcadero BART station to the hotel would be about $15. The trolley would be $2.75 per person, please carry exact change when you board.

You will need to get off the trolley at Mason and Jefferson Streets or Pier 41. Once you get off make a left towards Mason Street, continue straight until you reach Beach street. Once you reach Beach Street you will make an immediate left, halfway down the block you will see the Hotel Zephyr Lobby.
