

How Many Hours Would You Give to Save the Life of Your Teen?

We're Only Asking for Two.

IT WON'T HAPPEN TO ME

The critically acclaimed program that educates you and your teen drivers to the reality of unsafe driving habits and how to make split-second decisions that could ultimately save their lives.

Sunday, November 21, 2010 at 7:00PM

The Emery/Weiner School (9825 Stella Link Road)
Stein Fine Arts Complex Entrance/The Becker Theatre

FREE to all Jewish high school students and parents; reservations required to LSR@bbyo.org.
Please include names of all guests and ages of high school students in RSVP.

Host Families

Laura and Rory Alter
Judy and David Bell
Susan and Steve Berdinis
Vicki Rabin and Andy Bursten
Lori and Phil Cohen
Adele and Steve Croft
Debbie and Michael Darlow
Valerie Densen
Sabrina and Ed Engel

Linda and Daniel Epner
Sandra and Steve Finkelman
Joy and Joe Kaplan
Sara and Hugh Kaiser
Ellen and Michael Kleinman
Dana and Randy Lepow
Karen and Seth Lerner
Joni and Gary Lewis
Marcy and Bennett Midlo

Sharon Plon and Jed Nuchtern
Susan and Brad Patt
Laura and Mark Rosenfield
Julie and Steven Rubin
Tami and Gregg Sheena
Jordana and Kevin Slawin
Donna Cohen and Mitch Sirotkin
Robin and Brad Stein
Aileen and Mark Weyer

The Number One Reason Why You Should Register for It Won't Happen To Me:

It's a Matter of Life or Death.

The "It Won't Happen To Me" Foundation is a non-profit organization with a vital mission: to eliminate the number-one cause of teen deaths – car accidents.

"It Won't Happen To Me," which has been featured on CNN, helps teens become safer, more responsible drivers. Whether it's cell phone distractions, friends in the car or simply inexperience, you'll have a chance to ask questions and get expert advice.

Questions/More Information: 832.514.2296

Dedicated to reducing the number one cause of teen deaths — CAR CRASHES

