Bullying isn't just on the playground anymore!

Facebook

Texting

Email

Twitter

You Tube

Cyber Bullying is a growing problem across our nation, yet the state of Wisconsin has enacted no laws to enable Wisconsin schools, teachers, and law enforcement to deal with the issue.

Might someone you know a victim, a bystander or a bully? National Council of Jewish Women is taking action!

Officer Joel Dhein will address the issues of Cyber Bullying facing parents, teachers, administrators. Attorney Jodi Habush Sinykin will help us advocate for a a new law that takes on cyber bullying in Wisconsin.

Wednesday, November 30th at 7pm Congregation Sinai

8223 North Port Washington Road, Fox Point

Officer Joel Dhein:

- 24 years of service with law enforcement.
- Recipient of the Wisconsin Crime Prevention of the Year Award and several National awards.
- Instructs law Professionals both nationally and internationally; guest speaker on CNN and other National News Programs.

Attorney Jodi Habush Sinykin:

- Senior attorney with Midwest Environmental Advocates, focusing on water law and advancement of environmental policy matters and legislation.
- Key member of Wisconsin and regional coalition that worked to enact the Great Lakes Compact and Wisconsin Act 227.
- Retained by the Wisconsin Humane Society to work with legislators and stakeholders to enact and implement Wisconsin Act 90 to abolish inhumane puppy mills in our state.

Please RSVP by November 28th
To sellerbrock@wi.rr.com or online at www.ncjwmilwaukee.org

